

THRESHOLDS

HOME | HEALTH | HOPE

TRAINING AND CONFERENCES

The Naomi Ruth Cohen Institute's 12th Annual Community Mental Health Conference

"Help, Hope, Healing after Trauma: A Conference for Survivors & Those Who Care"

Sunday, June 2, 2013, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Beth Emet Synagogue
1224 Dempster Street
Evanston, Illinois 60202

Panelists this year are: Dr. Cassandra Kisiel, Dr. Brad Stobach, and Tonier Cain, trauma survivor and consumer advocate. In addition, there will be 14 discussion groups that will further explore this year's topic of trauma. For more information on this year's Conference, please visit www.naomicoheninstitute.org or call (312) 467-2552.

Region 1 -2 Annual Recovery Conference

"Peer Power: Stepping Up"

Wednesday, June 12, 2013, 9 a.m. – 3 p.m.

James R. Thompson Center (downstairs auditorium by the Food Court)
100 W. Randolph Street
Chicago, IL 60601

This year's consumer conference features keynote speaker Steve Harrington, the founder and executive director of the National Association of Peer Specialists. Latin Street Dancing will have a live dance performance on stage. The cost of the conference is $10.

For more information, contact Virginia Goldrick @ Virginia.Goldrick@illinois.gov.